Character Creation Walkthrough

Before You Begin: The Philosophy “Do not try to build a ‘perfect’ character. Build one who owes a debt, carries a scar, and has a name that someone will remember. The numbers will follow the storynot the other way around.” fill The Grey Wanderer

Key principles to embrace:

tem Flavor is free describe your character however you want; mechanics don’t limit creativity tem Boons are not XP tokens spend them freely; hoarding starves the table of drama tem Embrace failure Partial and Misses make the story interesting tem You manage your own resources track your own Obligation, Fatigue, Boons

Step 1: Concept Seed (5 minutes)

Start with a simple sentence that answers three questions:

tem Who are you? (ancestry, origin) tem What do you do? (profession, role) tem What defines you? (a trait, a debt, a scar)

Sample Concepts	rule Concept	Sentence
	rule Duelist	“A Vhasian exile who lost everything in a duel and now fights to reclaim her name.”
	Hedge Witch	“An Aelaerem village healer who learned magic from her grandmother and inherited her debts.”
	Runekeeper	“An Aeler tunnelwright who broke a seal in the deep ways and now serves the Patron who answered.”
	Rogue	“A Silkstrand gutter rat who picked the wrong tshape. Every choice carries weight.”

Sage’s Attributes:

rule Attribute	Rating	Cost Calculation	XP
rule Body	3	12 (6) + 23 (9)	15
Wits	2	12 (6)	6
Spirit	1		0
Presence	1		0
rule Total			21 XP
tomrule

Remaining XP: 32 21 = 11 XP

Step 4: Choose Your Skills (5 minutes)

Skills start at 0. Cost: new level × 2 XP.

Skill List by Category	rule Combat	Physical	Social	Knowledge	Magic rule Melee	Athletics	Sway	Lore	Arcana
	Ranged	Stealth	Command	Investigation	Ritual
	Brawl	Endurance	Deception	Medicine	Psionics
	Tactics	Craft	Performance
		Survival	Insight
tomrule

Sage’s Skills:

rule Skill	Rating	Cost Calculation	XP
rule Melee	1	01 (2)	2
Athletics	1	01 (2)	2
Endurance	1	01 (2)	2
rule Total			6 XP
tomrule

Remaining XP: 11 6 = 5 XP

Step 5: Choose Talents (5 minutes)

Talents are special abilities. Costs vary by power level.

Talent Tiers	rule Tier	XP Cost	Scope
	rule Minor	23 XP	Small situational bonus, once/scene
	Major	46 XP	Strong upgrade, permanent effect
	Prestige	710 XP	Campaigndefining
	Epic	11+ XP	Legendary ability
tomrule

Sage’s Talent:

rule	Talent	XP	Effect
rule	Weapon Mastery (longsword)	5	+2 dice with longsword, once/scene +1 Effect
tomrule

Remaining XP: 5 - 5 = 0 XP

Step 6: Choose a Patron (Optional, 5 minutes)

For nonmagical characters, skip this step. For magical characters, choose a Patron.

	rule	Patron	Domain	Best For	Obligation Style
	rule	The Traveler	Roads, journeys	Guides, scouts, couriers	Low, forgiving
		Oath of Flame	Light	Vows, radiance	Paladins, clerics
Recommended First Patrons		Moderate, smiting
		The Witness	Truth, memory	Investigators, judges	Moderate, revelation
		Ikasha	Shadow, secrets	Rogues, spies	Moderate, stealth
		Inaea	Mercy, connection	Healers, guardians	Low, community
	tomrule

Sage is nonmagical no Patron.

Step 7: Bonds Complications (Optional, +XP)

You may take up to two total from any mix (e.g., 1 Bond + 1 Complication, or 2 Bonds, or 2 Complications). Each gives +2 XP, max +4 XP.

Bonds (+2 XP each): A mutual relationship with another PC. Once per session, when you act on the Bond with intricate description, both gain 1 Boon.

Complications (+2 XP each): A burden your character carries. Each unresolved Complication adds +1 banked Story Beat to early scenes.

Sage’s Choices:

rule	Type	Name	Description
rule	Bond	Lyra (rogue)	“She helped me escape the trial that ruined my family.”
	Complication		“The magistrate who condemned my family still hunts me.”
tomrule

Bonus XP: +4 (1 Bond + 1 Complication)

Starting XP: 32 + 4 = 36 XP total

Step 8: Gear Final Touches (5 minutes)

Starting Gear (assumed free):

- tem One set of clothing appropriate to your culture
- tem A melee weapon (Light or Medium) or a ranged weapon with ammunition
- tem Light armor (or Medium if your concept demands it) tem A backpack, waterskin, 1d6 days of rations, a knife, flint and steel, a small lantern or candle tem Tools for any skill you have at level 1+

Buying Better Gear (XP costs):

rule	Item	XP
rule	Light weapon (e.g., dagger)	4
Medium	weapon (e.g., longsword)	8
Heavy	weapon (e.g., greatsword)	12
	Light armor	4
	Medium armor	8
	Heavy armor	12
Shield	(buckler/heater/pavise)	4/8/12
tomrule

Sage’s Gear (starting, free):

tem Longsword (Medium weapon) tem Light armor tem Traveler’s clothes tem Backpack, waterskin, rations, knife, flint and steel, lantern

Combat Stats

Melee pool: Body 3 + Melee 1 + WM 2 = 6 dice
Defense DV: Body 3 + Athletics 1 = 4
Armor: Light (Harm 1 Fatigue 1)

Step 10: Calculate Derived Stats

tem Fatigue Track = Body rating (3 for Sage) tem Obligation Capacity = Spirit + Presence (2 for Sage; not applicable as nonmagical) tem Harm Track = Always 3 boxes tem Boon Cap = Always 5 (trim to 2 at scene end)

A name your character would answer to

The Grey Wanderer’s Last Word “Now close the book. Go make some mistakes. I will be at the inn, buying the wine with a coin that shouldn’t exist, waiting to hear what road you choose.”

Your character sheet is not your character. It is a tool to help you tell their story. The numbers will change. The scars will accumulate. The debts will come due. That is not a problem. That is the game.

Welcome to Fate’s Edge. The road is waiting.
