

The Dwarven Debt

An Adventure for Fate's Edge - Aeler

Adventure Overview

Title: The Dwarven Debt
Region: Aeler - Crowns & Under-Vaults
Theme: Underground exploration, dwarven law and custom, ancient bargains
Level: Seasoned to Veteran (Tier II-III)
Length: 4-5 Sessions

1 Premise

A dwarven merchant house has called in a debt owed by one of the player characters, demanding they retrieve a sacred artifact from a dangerous section of the Spine Underway. The artifact, a ceremonial hammer known as the Forgefather's Voice, was pledged as collateral decades ago but was never properly transferred according to dwarven law. Now, with the house facing financial difficulties, they're enforcing the ancient contract, forcing the players into the deep places beneath the mountains where ancient dangers still stir.

2 Hook

The adventure begins when the players encounter one of the following scenarios:

- Clan-Speaker Thrain Ironhold arrives with a formal delegation to collect on the debt, presenting ancient contracts and demanding immediate compliance under dwarven law. (DV 4 Social encounter, Presence + Command)
- The players' patron sends an urgent message warning them that a dwarven house is making claims on their behalf, and they need to resolve the situation before it escalates. (DV 3 Investigation, Wits + Lore)
- A dwarven prospector approaches them in a tavern, desperately seeking help to recover the same artifact for reasons he won't fully explain. (DV 3 Social, Presence + Sway)

10 GM Notes

10.1 Dwarven Culture

Emphasize the importance of honor, tradition, and proper procedure in dwarven society. Every interaction should reflect these values:

- Players respecting customs gain +1 Position
- Violating protocols worsens Position by 1 step
- Proper titles and ceremonies matter for social interactions
- Legal procedures are complex but fair when followed

10.2 Underground Atmosphere

Create a sense of the vast, ancient dwarven realm:

- Use sound descriptions: distant forges, dripping water, stone settling
- Vary architectural details: smooth ancient stonework vs. rough natural caves
- Describe the weight of stone above, the permanence of underground construction
- Different areas should feel distinct: halls of state vs. working tunnels vs. ancient passages

10.3 Legal Complexity

Dwarven law is intricate and ancient:

- Multiple precedents exist for most situations
- Specific procedures must be followed for validity
- Contracts can have unexpected interpretations
- Legal experts (like Clan-Speaker) can find creative solutions

10.4 Supernatural Elements

The Deep Stirrings represent patient, ancient supernatural forces:

- Prefer manipulation to direct confrontation
- Communicate through dreams, stone-song, and omens
- Have waited decades for proper resolution
- Are not inherently evil, but have different priorities

10.5 Player Agency

Provide multiple paths to resolution:

- Legal approach: Navigate dwarven law system
- Social approach: Negotiate with all factions
- Investigation approach: Discover true history and find creative solutions
- Direct action approach: Force resolution through power

10.6 Story Beats

Use dwarven environment and customs for complications:

- 1 SB: Minor procedural violation, small legal complication
- 2 SB: Important NPC becomes suspicious, document goes missing
- 3 SB: Cave-in blocks path, ancient guardian activates
- 4+ SB: Major faction turns hostile, supernatural manifestation occurs

10.7 Session-Specific Guidance

Session 1 Focus: Establish dwarven legal/cultural framework. Players should understand the debt is legitimate but complex.

Session 2 Focus: Introduce supernatural elements and underground challenges. Players learn there's more to this than simple contract law.

Session 3 Focus: Deep supernatural contact and moral complexity. Players must balance competing legitimate claims.

Session 4 Focus: Climactic resolution and consequences. All previous elements converge in final choices.

10.8 Alternative Endings

If players fail to achieve clean resolution:

- Partial Success: Temporarily satisfy one faction while creating new problems
- Compromise: Artifact remains in limbo, ongoing tension between factions
- Pyrrhic Victory: Solve immediate problem but create worse long-term issues
- Escalation: Situation becomes larger conflict involving multiple dwarven houses

10.9 Scaling for Different Tiers

Tier II (Seasoned): Reduce entity Caps, simplify legal procedures, provide more NPC assistance.

Tier III (Veteran): Add political complications, increase entity power, complicate legal requirements.

Tier IV (Paragon): Introduce kingdom-level political implications, multiple simultaneous conflicts, entity gains patron backing.
