

Stone & Silence

A Two-Part Horror Arc for Fate's Edge

Tiers II–IV — 5–8 sessions — Nonverbal rites, reality distortion, art-as-apocalypse

- Part II: The Star-Mad Sculptor of Weeping Crag (Tier III–IV, art-driven catastrophe).

Each appendix is a ready reference for the table: milestones, magic options, fail-forward tables, Diamonds, and quick sheets.

C Magic Path Integration by Site

Monastery of the Mute (Silence God)

Path	Benefits & Risks
Cantors	Conductors of nonverbal cadence; can “sing” in sign. Benefit: once/scene reduce DV by 1 when leading mime or cadence. Risk: echo-choirs mimic you, ticking Sound Loss [+1].
Runekeepers	Seal-writing and vow-binding. Benefit: sanctify boundaries to block the entity’s feeding. Cost: +1 Obligation per wing protected.
Invokers	Symbolic intercession with abstract entities. Benefit: distract or redirect the Audient Void briefly. Risk: symbols “deafen” an ally for a beat.
Casters	Elemental hush or discord. Benefit: create safe noise pockets for rites. Risk: backlash manifests as silence zones following you.
Summoners	Silent servitors and sign-bound spirits. Benefit: test taboos by proxy. Risk: spirit interprets vows literally at a bad moment.

Weeping Crag Atelier (Star-Shaper)

Path	Benefits & Risks
Cantors	Counter-harmonies to spatial chords. Benefit: lower one Reality DV by 1. Risk: dissonance attracts shards.
Runekeepers	Null sigils over geometry. Benefit: freeze a distortion for 1 beat. Cost: sigil burns to ash when touched by starlight.
Invokers	Parley with concept-aspect. Benefit: bargain an angle closed. Risk: a new, lesser angle opens elsewhere.
Casters	Geometric evocations. Benefit: anchor a safe Euclidean bubble. Risk: bubble drifts, splitting the party.
Summoners	Sculptor’s muses, bound. Benefit: extract meaning from a piece. Risk: muse compels creation during rest.

F Part I Aids — The God That Feeds on Silence (Tier II)

Core Clocks

- Sound Loss [6] (areas fall permanently silent)
- Library Taboos [4] (forbidden words pressure)
- Monastic Trust [4] (your standing with elders)

Scene Menu

Gate of Palms. Gesture-only parley for entry. Position starts Controlled; Cantor-led sign can drop DV by 1.

Forbidden Words Stacks. Navigate aisles where speaking the wrong lexeme seals shelves; map with chalk and mime.

Rite of Discordant Noise. Assemble a counter-cadence to feed and redirect the entity; success shifts Sound Loss [-2].

The Silent Bell. A bell that rings as absence; ring off-key to “feed” the entity away while risking a vow breach.

SB Spend Prompts

- Echo-silence swallows a sentence; repeat the action or pay time.
- Novice imitates you; a taboo is broken in your name.
- A wing loses ambient sound; stealth gains, social loses.

Set-Pieces

The Cantilevered Walk. A cliff path where angles disagree. Success allows a shortcut; cost drops supplies into a sideways crevasse.

The Studio Debate. Persuade Cass that beauty must spare the world. Break her tie to the entity by changing her aesthetic premise.

Shattering the Seed. Destroy a growth node before it harmonizes; risk shard swarms and rival interference.

Night of Fixed Stars. The sky locks; time dilates; use Diamonds to keep Position stable while dismantling pillars.

Ritual Pillars (Break Any One)

- Keening Axis: The tone line that holds the transformation. Counter: ring the Bell of Discord off cadence.
- Canvas Lattice: The pattern net in the atelier. Counter: overlay a Resonance Diagram to introduce noise.
- Nine Angles: The geometric premises in Cass’s manifesto. Counter: refute an angle in public; shift Cass’s Conviction [-2].

SB Spend Prompts

- Gravity flips on a beat; split the party or drop equipment.
- Shards mimic a PC’s gesture; their action repeats at the worst time.

I Enhanced NPC Magic Interactions

NPC	Magic-Specific Hooks
Abbess Mirel	Trades silence hours as Diamonds; favors Runekeepers who seal taboos.
Brother Slate	Cantor of the Hands; teaches sign-cant that lowers DV once/scene.
Cass of Weeping Crag	Will debate any premise; grants Artist's Proof to those who impress her.
Foreman Jote	Quarry boss; knows how the angles "bite"; lends Euclidean Anchors for a price.
Rival Adept Sera	Invoker studying the Star-Shaper; might help you close an angle, for a debt.

J Player-Facing Guidelines

For All: Position is everything. Earn Dominant by securing Diamonds first; roll later.

For Casters: Backlash manifests as lost senses or skewed geometry; treat it as fiction, not a simple penalty.

For Runekeepers: Your seals can anchor safety, but the entity hunts boundaries; expect targeted pressure.

For Invokers: Parley with abstract aspects is possible; be ready to give up a symbol or habit to make it stick.

For Cantors: Nonverbal music is still music. Conduct in silence; let hands be the choir.

For Summoners: Spirits will "remember" wrong; let them test hazards, but mind their literalism.
